

Windsor Manor Indianola May Newsletter 2010

As many of you know, we had a mishap on April 11th, in which all of the residents on the south side of the building had to evacuate from their apartments. I want to say THANK YOU for working with staff and getting out so quickly. Most of all, I am so proud and thankful we have such dedicated and professional staff to get everyone out safely. When you see Heather Houseman, Emili Mathany, Shelbie Hill, Linda Ackerman, Amanda Clark and David Mathany, tell them Thank You for caring so much about you. I know they were very shook up and the comment made to me was, "I love these residents, I couldn't imagine something happening to them" Our staff love each and every one of you, it's not a job, you're their family. I want to extend a Happy Mothers Day to every woman who lives at Windsor Manor, even if you didn't have children, you are still a mother or grandmother to us.---

From the Kitchen

May is here. The flowers are in bloom and the gardens are going in. What does that mean for you? For me, I love to garden I have to have a garden at home and at my mom's house. I started this year with something new -but it will take a couple of good years before I will be able to get anything out of it , and can you guess what it might be? Let me give you a hint most of you eat them almost daily. Yep that's right I started a strawberry patch. I hope that in the next two years I will have some to go with my rhubarb that I have already. I'm going to have a couple of tomato plants that will be used for Windsor Manor. I have started them at home, inside and hope that when I put them out in the garden they will grow nice and big. I like to have some fresh tomatoes the ones that you get from the store are good, but the home grown are better. But that is enough about me. Also this month is hamburger month so I will try to have a day where it is all about Hamburger. Here are some fun facts.

Burger fun facts

- Americans consume 14 billion a year and buy 5 billion hamburgers.
- Speedy was the original mascot for McDonald's.
- McDonald's is the most popular hamburger restaurant in the U.S.
- White Castle is the oldest continuous running hamburger chain.
- 1945 was the year the first self-serve McDonald's opened.

From the Maintenance Department:

David has noticed that some residents are experiencing problems with their showers-either problems with the temperature regulation or water pressure. David has ordered the necessary parts to be able to fix the showers that are currently having problems, so if you are currently having problems with your shower please report it to David or the staff. This way we can order the parts to have it fixed as soon as possible! Thank you so much!
