Well, we had a great time at Halloween this year. The trick or treating event had a great turn out. Lots of kids in lots of great costumes. My favorite costume, was the granddaughter of Don and Deanie Damhoff. She was a peacock.

Now it is time for Thanksgiving. Thanksgiving is one of my favorite holidays. I love getting together with my family to just be thankful for everything that we have. I also love to eat all the wonderful food. We will be having a wonderful Thanksgiving meal here at Windsor Manor. If you would like to come eat with your family member, please reserve your seat today.

We have a lot of great advertisement going on right now. One thing that I want to mention, is our ad on WSDR. We run an ad Monday through Friday at 8:30 a.m. The ad that I am currently running, guest stars Rolland and Ramona VanZuiden. Check it out and then tell us how great, or not so great we sound.

Windsor Manor's staff and residents make this the most amazing place. I couldn't imagine being anywhere else. Have a safe and blessed holiday.

November 2016

How/Why Thanksgiving started:

The American tradition of Thanksgiving began with a three-day feast that took place in 1621 to celebrate a bountiful harvest. It became cemented as an annual celebration in 1863, when President Lincoln declared a "day of Thanksgiving" during the Civil War.

The event that Americans commonly call the "First Thanksgiving" was celebrated by the Pilgrims after their first harvest in the New World in 1621. This feast lasted three days, and — as accounted by attendee Edward Winslow — it was attended by 90 Native Americans and 53 Pilgrims. The New England colonists were accustomed to regularly celebrating "thanksgivings"—days of prayer thanking God for blessings such as military victory or the end of a drought.

If there is one day each year when food and family take center stage, it is Thanksgiving. It is a holiday about “going home” with all the emotional content those two words imply. The Sunday following Thanksgiving is always the busiest travel day of the year in the United States. Each day of the long Thanksgiving weekend, more than 10 million people take to the skies. Another 40 million Americans drive 100 miles or more to have Thanksgiving dinner. And the nation’s railways teem with travelers going home for the holiday.

Despite modern-age turmoil—and perhaps, even more so, because of it—gathering together in grateful appreciation for a Thanksgiving celebration with friends and family is a deeply meaningful and comforting annual ritual to most Americans. The need to connect with loved ones and to express our gratitude is at the heart of all this feasting, prayerful thanks, recreation, and nostalgia for a simpler time. And somewhere in the bustling activity of every November's Thanksgiving is the abiding National memory of a moment in Plymouth, nearly 400 years ago, when two distinct cultures, on the brink of profound and irrevocable change, shared an autumn feast.

I hope you all have a wonderful Thanksgiving - Kim
