On the 11th hour on the 11th day of the 11th month of 1918, an armistice, or temporary cessation of hostilities, was declared between Allied nations and Germany in the First World War. This day was commemorated as Armistice Day in 1919. In the aftermath of WWII and the Korean War, Armistice Day became Veteran's Day, a holiday dedicated to American veterans of all wars.

'Twas THE NIGHT OF THANKGIVING

'Twas Thanksgiving night, I just couldn't sleep. I tried counting backwards. I tried counting sheep.

The leftovers beckoned – the dark meat and white, but I fought the temptation with all my might.

Tossing and turning with anticipation, the thought of a snack became infatuation.

So I raced to the kitchen, flung open the door, and gazed at the fridge, full of goodies galore.

I gobbled up turkey and buttered potatoes, pickles and carrot, beans and tomatoes.

I felt myself swelling so plump and so round, until all of a sudden, I rose off the ground.

I crashed through the ceiling, floating into the sky with a mouthful of pudding and a handful of pie.

But I managed to yell as I soared past the trees...

"Happy eating to all, pass the cranberries please."
