Naomi Johnson was raised on a farm in Clark County with her parents, 5 brothers and 3 sisters. She then married Richard E. Johnson and moved to a farm in Bondurant, IA where they raised their 3 children. However, Naomi considers Truro her hometown, having lived and farmed there for many years. She is full of stories about living life on the farm. She claims to get her spunk and humor from her father, who loved to pull pranks and have fun.

Naomi loves music and singing and can often be found at the piano doing just that. She is very active with her friends and can play a great game of pitch.

Naomi loved to travel and enjoyed going to places like Texas, Colorado, and Hawaii, but she would pick Iowa over any other place to live and make her home.

Naomi has 6 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren. When asked what she likes best about living at Windsor Manor, she said the food and all the wonderful staff.
