Bernita Forth has lived at Windsor Manor since November of 2014. She moved in for the winter months but soon after decided this would be her new home!

Bernita had one sister, Virginia and one brother, James. They grew up in Clyde Township. Bernita stated that the things she treasured most was all the fun they would have as a family.

Bernita married Donald in March of 1944 and together they had four children. One of Bernita's favorite quotes we hear her say a lot is "If anyone tells you life is easy, they don't know what they are talking about!"

Bernita loves to help with crafts, play Bingo and every Friday she helps her church "United Methodist" with the church newsletters. Bernita's thoughtfulness has really shone since the day she moved in! She is always willing to give an extra hand, listening ear or just a wonderful smile to help brighten anyone's day! Thank you, Bernita, for just being "YOU"!
